

PROGRAMME

26-28 NOVEMBER, 2012, WARSAW, UNIVERSITY OF WARSAW LIBRARY

ORGANIZERS

European Network Remembrance and Solidarity; Institute of Sociology, University of Warsaw; Institute of Sociology, University of Social Sciences and Humanities; Osteuropa-Institut der Freien Universität Berlin

FUNDING:

National Centre for Culture; Nord-Ost Insitut; Der Beauftragte des Bundesregierung für Kultur und Medien; Ministerstwo Kultury i Dziedzictwa Narodowego

ACADEMIC COMMITTEE:

Conveners: Prof. Jeffrey Olick (University of Virginia), Dr. Małgorzata Pakier (University of Social Sciences and Humanities), Dr. Joanna Wawrzyniak (University of Warsaw/Freiburg Institute for Advanced Studies)

Advisory Board: Dr. Burkhard Olschowsky (European Network Remembrance and Solidarity), Prof. Gertrud Pickhan (Free University of Berlin), Prof. Jan Rydel (European Network Remembrance and Solidarity), Prof. Dariusz Stola (Collegium Civitas/Polish Academy of Sciences).

MONDAY NOVEMBER 26TH

10:45 am Welcome ROOM 316

11:00 am JAN RYDEL, RAFAŁ ROGULSKI – European Network Remembrance & Solidarity

11:15 am JEFFREY OLICK, MAŁGORZATA PAKIER, JOANNA WAWRZYNIAK – Introduction to the Conference

12:00 KEYNOTE: CAROL GLUCK – Operations of Memory: East Europe/East Asia CHAIR: JEFFREY OLICK

1:00 pm KEYNOTE: STEFAN TROEBST – The Limits and Divisions of European Memory CHAIR: JAN RYDEL

2:15 pm Break

3:30 pm Parallel sessions

MAPPING MEMORY REGIONS ROOM 316 MEMORIES OF EASTERN EUROPE: THEORETICAL APPROACHES ROOM 256

CHAIR CAROL GLUCK

CHAIR GERTRUD PICKHAN

Philippe Perchoc How many European memory regions? Mapping EU memories

Alexey Vasilyev Repressed pain vs. reserved memory: specifics of nationalism studies in the Eastern Europe as reflection of traumatic historical experience

Gregor Feindt, Rieke Schäfer Mapping the semantics of “European Memory”

Marta Karkowska Counter-memory, alternative memory, and violence in the Polish research on the social aspects of memory

Joanna Wawrzyniak Beyond East and West: Eastern Europe & African historical consciousness: a scholar biography

Katarzyna Szalewska Reception of “memory studies” in Poland (in Polish)

Małgorzata Wosińska Established vs. emerging memory region: Reflections on genocide memory in Poland and Rwanda (in Polish)

Andrzej Szpociński The three-dimensional conception of the social memory as a starting point for comparative studies

Written presentation Marco Siddi - Russia and the forging of memory and identity in Europe

DISCUSSANT STEFAN TROEBST

DISCUSSANT JEFFREY OLICK

5:30 pm Coffee break

6:00 pm Parallel sessions

MEMORY IN THE HISTORICAL SPACE OF VIOLENCE:
THE IDEOLOGICAL BEGINNINGS OF THE 20TH CENTURY

ROOM 316

CHAIR MARCIN KULA

Maciej Górny	„The Hun at Work“. Atrocities and memory (in Polish)
Stephen Scala	Remembrance and rupture: memory as motor and mirror of the Socialist-Communist split in interwar Poland
Anna Zalewska	Diffused memory of the WWI gasscapes (1914-2014). How to use without abuse the results of archaeological studies for the design of memorial landscapes? (in Polish)
Seda Özdemir	Contemporary Armenian novelists in Turkey: The literary representation of Armenian collective memory
Written presentation	Catalin Turliuc - Games within frontiers: memory and citizenship in interwar Romania
DISCUSSANT	DARIUSZ STOLA

SPATIAL FRAMES OF REMEMBRANCE:
DISPLACEMENT AND MEMORY (1)

ROOM 256

CHAIR KATHARINE MCGREGOR

Irene Sywenky	History, trauma, and spatial imagination: A comparative perspective
Ekaterine Pirtskhalava	Muslim Meskhetians (Meskhetian Turks) from 1944 to nowadays
Judy Brown	Home away from home(land): local memory politics and “national” activism among the Crimean Tatars of Sevastopol
Olesya Khromeychuk	The construction and re-construction of the “historical truth” and memory of the Waffen SS ‘Galicia’ Division in Ukraine and the diaspora
Written presentation	Joanna Cukras-Stelągowska, Jakub Stelągowski – German-Polish common religious heritage in social reflection Victoria Dunaeva - Memory and survival during the Socialist period. Case of Old Believers in Siberia (Russia) and in northeastern region of Poland – comparative analysis
DISCUSSANT	SŁAWOMIR KAPRALSKI

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 27TH

9:00 am Parallel sessions

MEMORY IN THE HISTORICAL SPACE OF VIOLENCE: AUTHORITARIAN REGIMES: OFFICIAL NARRATIVES

ROOM 316

CHAIR VALÉRIE ROSOUX

- Adriana Decu The aftermath of dissident reeducation:
a comparative approach of Romania's "Pitesti phenomenon" and the Chinese labor camps
- Éva Tulipán "Counter-memory". The official representation of the 1956 Hungarian revolution before 1989
- Rachel Joyce The solidification of conflict memory in Sri Lanka
- Mustafa Menshawy War of memories, memories of war in Mubarak's downfall

DISCUSSANT

CAROL GLUCK

SPATIAL FRAMES OF REMEMBRANCE: DISPLACEMENT AND MEMORY (2)

ROOM 256

CHAIR JENNY WÜSTENBERG

- Ewa Nowicka Civil war and evacuation in the biographical memory of Greek repatriates from Poland (in Polish)
- Małgorzata Diaspora in the homeland? Memories of resettlements from Głowacka-Grajper the former Kresy of the Second Polish Republic in contemporary Poland (in Polish)
- Kamila Dąbrowska Not-experienced extermination and experienced expulsion.
The post-memory of the Holocaust, the memory of exclusion and the process of creating identities in Polish memory places among post-war Jewish emigrants
- Claudia Draganoiu The long way to Ithaca: the exiles are coming Home

Written presentation

Wiktoria Kudela-Świątek - "Distant Siberians" Polish scientific discourse about the Kazakhstani Poles' biographical narratives
Anna Wylegała - The missing "Others": comparative study of the memory of the ethnic violence in Poland and Ukraine

DISCUSSANT

SŁAWOMIR ŁODZIŃSKI

11:00 am Coffee break

11:30 am KEYNOTE: ELIZABETH JELIN – Memories of State Repression: the Past in the Present in Latin America

CHAIR: BURKHARD OLSCHOWSKY ROOM 316

12:30 pm Parallel sessions

MEMORY IN THE HISTORICAL SPACE OF VIOLENCE: AUTHORITARIAN REGIMES: COUNTER-MEMORIES

ROOM 316

CHAIR ELIZABETH JELIN

Sławomir Kapralski Memories of East European Roma. Between encapsulation, homogenization, and proliferation of memory-scapes

Shaban Darakchi Hidden stories of Bulgarian Mohammedans

Mariusz Kałczewiak Jewish experience of violence in dictatorial Argentina

DISCUSSANT

DIRK MOSES

2:30 pm Break

SPATIAL FRAMES OF REMEMBRANCE: REGION AS A FIGURE OF MEMORY

ROOM 256

CHAIR JOANNA KURCZEWSKA

Csaba G. Kiss Gömör – Gemer: lieux de mémoire (in Polish)

Olimpia Dragouni „Famous Macedonia” – the commemoration of the region in 20th century Greece

Oleksii Polegkyi Historical narrative discourse of WWII in Ukraine in the context of “Russian world”

Piotr Chmiel An Italian foreground of the "new" Europe. Some remarks of Clausio Magris and Paolo Rumiz on the Eastern part of the continent and its historical legacy of the 20th century (in Polish)

DISCUSSANT

PIOTR KWIATKOWSKI

3:30 pm Parallel sessions

MEMORY IN THE HISTORICAL SPACE OF VIOLENCE:
TRANSITIONS: THE CHALLENGES OF DEMOCRACY AND THE MARKET

ROOM 316

SPATIAL FRAMES OF REMEMBRANCE: CITY AS A MEMORY SCENE

ROOM 256

CHAIR TADEUSZ SZAWIEL

CHAIR MARIA LEWICKA

Anna Młynarska-Sobaczewska, Adam Czarnota Law between Mnemosyne and Lethe. Collective memories and constitutional identities in Central-Eastern Europe

Jenny Wüstenberg Civil society activists and clashing memories in post-wall Berlin

Uladzislau Belavusau Law or politics of memory in Central and Eastern Europe?

Katarzyna Sztop-Rutkowska, Maciej Białous The processes of collective memory in culturally diverse cities on the example of Białystok and Lublin

Short discussion

Florentina Dobre Remembering communist persecutions: A comparative study of Romanian and Bulgarian politics of memory

Piotr Kwiatkowski The bombardment of a defenseless town. A study of memory and forgetting

Berta Jozsef Between violence and remembrance – negative memory in post-colonial and post-authoritarian societies: Indonesia’s example

Krystyna E. Siellawa-Kolbowska War after war. The WWII memorials as memory sites – the case of Warsaw

Matthias I. Köhler Lost in Transition. “Post-Authoritarian” identity and the memory of “authoritarian” violence

Ana Aceska War memories and urban planning in the post-war divided city: the case of Mostar, Bosnia-Herzegovina

Written presentation
Marcin Napiórkowski - The Warsaw Rising of the Death. Mourning and melancholia in post-war Warsaw

DISCUSSANT

TOMASZ ZARYCKI

DISCUSSANT

MAGDALENA SARYUSZ-WOLSKA

5:45 pm Coffee break

6:15 pm KEYNOTE: GYANENDRA PANDEY – *Realms of Memory – ‘archived’ and ‘un-archived’

CHAIR: SŁAWOMIR KAPRALSKI

ROOM 316

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 28TH

8:30 am Parallel sessions

MEMORY IN THE HISTORICAL SPACE OF VIOLENCE: ROOM 316
 AMBIGUOUS AFTERMATHS

CHAIR BURKHARD OLSCHOWSKY

Karine Ramondy The Democratic Republic of Congo, lands of violence: “afterschocks” of Patrice Lumumba’s murder

Dragoş Petrescu Bloody events and contradictory truths: The revolutions of 1989 and the “Rashomon Effect”

Lucia Popa Post-communist artistic memorialization: the portraits of Ceauşescu

Nadiya Trach Chernobyl as a concept in Ukrainian collective memory

DISCUSSANT VALÉRIE ROSOUX

10:30 am Coffee break

SPATIAL FRAMES OF REMEMBRANCE: ROOM 256
 REFRAMING THE NATIONAL

CHAIR MAŁGORZATA PAKIER

Gal Hermoni, Udi Lebel Penetrating the “Remembrance Day” Playlist: music and the localization of memory

Agnieszka Topolska “Musik macht frei”: West-Eastern Divan Orchestra

Mayhill C. Fowler A social history of post-Soviet Arts: theater and trauma in Poland and Ukraine

Stephenie Young The forensics of memorialization in post-war Balkan photography

Written presentation

Olga Barbasiewicz - Monuments, places of remembrance and foreign policy making. The case of Japan and United States. Japanese perspective

DISCUSSANT KATHARINE MCGREGOR

11:00 am KEYNOTE: DIRK MOSES Terrorized Histories and Cosmopolitan Futures: Decolonizing Memories in Global Context CHAIR ELŻBIETA HAŁAS ROOM 316

12:00 Parallel sessions

MEMORY IN THE HISTORICAL SPACE OF VIOLENCE: JUSTICE, ACKNOWLEDGEMENT, COMPENSATION (1)		ROOM 316	FRAMING THE FUTURE EDUCATION		ROOM 256	FRAMING THE FUTURE ORAL TESTIMONIES	HISTORY MEETING HOUSE
CHAIR JEFFREY OLICK			CHAIR DIRK MOSES			CHAIR: ŁUKASZ KRZYŻANOWSKI
Katharine McGregor	The struggle over memories of the 1965-68 mass violence in Indonesia	Zlatko Bukač	Violence, war and endorphins: children popular culture during civil war in Croatia	Jarosław Pałka	The methodologies of oral history. Visual History Archive versus History Meeting House and KARTA Centre's projects
Valérie Rosoux	Memory versus reconciliation. The limits of a fairy-tale	Tamara Pavasovic Trost	Rewriting history in Southeast Europe: a processual analysis of remembering and forgetting	Alina Bothe	Virtual memories of Jewish resistance against the destruction
Luis Tsukayama Cisneros	How do memory, ideology and national identity discourse relate? Reactions to the Peruvian Truth Commission	Borislava Manojlovic	Dealing with contentious past: memory and education in post-conflict Croatia	Marcin Jarząbek, Karolina Żłobecka	„Poles in Wehrmacht”, Germans in Wehrmacht. Individual versus collective memory (oral history of former German soldiers in Poland)
Maria Mälksoo	Criminalizing Communism: transnational mnemopolitics in Europe	Jolanta Ambrosewicz-Jacobs	National histories and identities in education about the Holocaust in post-1989 Poland and the wider world	PANEL ORGANIZED BY HISTORY MEETING HOUSE
Written presentation	Marcin Komosa - Institutionalized memory, institutionalized truth Sokol Lleshi - We are not like them: continuous modernity in East Central Europe's institutional memory production after the fall of communism
DISCUSSANT	MARIE-CLAIRE LAVABRE	DISCUSSANT	NOBUYA HASHIMOTO

2:00 pm Break

3:00 pm Parallel sessions

MEMORY IN THE HISTORICAL SPACE OF VIOLENCE: JUSTICE, ACKNOWLEDGEMENT, COMPENSATION (2)		ROOM 316	FRAMING THE FUTURE: ART & PUBLIC SPHERE	ROOM 256	THE FUTURE OF MEMORY PROJECTS	HISTORY MEETING HOUSE
CHAIR MARIE-CLAIRE LAVABRE		CHAIR ANNA HOROLETS		CHAIR ADAM CZARNOTA
Stephanie Benzaquen	The memory of the Khmer Rouge regime in Cambodia	Katarzyna Bojarska	When Absence Becomes Loss and Other Fables. Artistic and literary solutions for confronting and shaping collective memory	Magdalena Saryusz-Wolska, Joanna Kalicka	Modi Memorandi
Gyunghee Park	Politicized traumas: the transformation of “Comfort Women” memory as a memory of injustice	Agnieszka Kłos	Fading memory of Birkenau, hidden in nature and objects (in Polish)	Bartosz Korzeniewski	Polish lieux de mémoire
Piotr Filipkowski	German compensation payments and differentiated memories of the World War II	Uilleam Blacker	Remembering Jews and the Holocaust in contemporary Warsaw from Polish and Israeli perspectives: the work of Joanna Rajkowska and Yael Bartana	Michał Łuczewski, Tomasz Maślanka	Politics of history in Poland, Germany and Russia
Stanisława Trebunia-Staszal	Memory of the Germans anthropological and racial research among Polish Highlanders during WWII (in Polish)	Bozhin Traykov	Alyosha vs. Superman: remembering the past through the ideological lenses of the present	Izabela Skórzyńska, Anna Wachowiak	Visual representations of Polish-German past in the context of open/closed regional politics
Written presentation	Joanna Szymoniczek - German cemeteries of World War II in Eastern and Central Europe			Written presentation	Amelia Korzeniewska – An outline of research on collective representations of the post-war past
DISCUSSANT	MACIEJ BUGAJEWSKI	DISCUSSANT	ANDA ROTTENBERG	DISCUSSANT	CSABA G. KISS

5:00 pm Coffee break

5:30 pm FINAL PLENARY SESSION

ROOM 316